Combine the inherent stress of public speaking with the adversarial environment of the courtroom and it becomes clear why many dread testifying. This class is specifically designed to improve presentation skills and build confidence for the next time you step inside a courtroom.

This unique and interactive class will cover court preparation strategies, public speaking skills, creating effective visual aids, non-verbal communication, the mindset of the jury, defense tactics, controlling emotions and the importance of avoiding jargon.

Don't spend the rest of your career worrying about court. Take the next step and embrace your role as a witness. Learn to communicate with confidence.
